

ORLANDO Business Journal

Friday, October 5, 2007

Bavar buys 34-acre site near airport, plans offices

Orlando Business Journal - by Kristen Stieffel News Assistant

Bavar Properties Group bought a 34-acre commercial tract at Orlando Corporate Center for $8.1 million.

The site, at Goldenrod Road and Lee Vista Boulevard, is just north of Orlando International Airport.

Timonium, Md.-based Bavar plans to build one-story, Class A office buildings totaling about 350,000 square feet.

The seller, Daryl M. Carter Trustee of the Carter-OCC Land Trust, was represented by Patrick Chisholm of Maury Carter & Associates. Robert Blackwell, a principal at NAI Realvest Partners Inc., represented the buyer.