

Orlando Sentinel
Wednesday June 22, 2005

Two parcels of land off International Drive on the east side of Interstate 4 sold for just less than $27 million. The properties, north of Dolly Parton's Dixie Stampede attraction, will be bisected by a proposed I-4 overpass connecting International Drive on the east and Apopka-Vineland Road on the west. An investment group headed by Daryl M. Carter and Jeffrey R. Douglas bought 80 acres for $9.12 million. Carter of Maury Carter & Associates represented the buyer. The seller was represented by Dan Harper of South Hampton Properties and Max Hunt of Max Hunt and Associates.