

Around Orlando

...Landed. Affordable housing in Orange County doesn't come cheap. The county just paid $490,000, or almost $49,000 an acre, for 9.8 acres on the south side of Pershing Avenue, nine-tenths of a mile east of SR 436. Going up will be Ashley Place, a 96-unit apartment complex. Selling the land were Julian T. and Betty J. Hardy and Mabel M. Lingo. Daryl M. Carter of Maury L. Carter & Associates Inc. handled the transaction...