

CFCAR accepting Hallmark nominations

By: Florida Real Estate Journal

Last Updated: Monday, February 04, 2008

ORLANDO - The Central Florida Commercial Association of Realtors (CFCAR) is hosting the 2007 Hallmark Awards, which recognize top commercial real estate professionals. Awards will be presented for top production in categories including investment, retail, office, industrial, land and overall top producers within the 10 counties served by CFCAR.

Additionally, any broker with more than $2 million in production will be awarded the Circle of Achievement award. Other awards include the Deal of the Year, Community Service, Rookie of the Year, Mortgage Broker of the Year and Industry Affiliate. The Wilbur Strickland Lifetime Achievement Award will be presented to long-time Central Florida land developer Maury L. Carter.

2007 Hallmark applications are currently being accepted. Applications and nomination forms are available at www.cfcар.net. The deadline for submission is Friday, Feb. 15.

Reservations for the March 13 cocktail reception, dinner and program can also be made online. Cost is $75 per person or $125 per couple. The event will be held at the Downtown Orlando Marriott.