ORLANDO - The Central Florida Commercial Association of Realtors (CFCAR) recently hosted its annual Hallmark awards dinner. The evening honored commercial real estate practitioners from CFCAR's 10-county area and their accomplishments in 2007.

At the event, Maury L. Carter was awarded the Wilbur Strickland Lifetime Achievement Award. This award is given to a person considered a founding father of commercial real estate in this area and represents outstanding dedication and support of CFCAR.

Mayor Richard Crotty presented Carter with the Lifetime Achievement Award. In Carter's more than 50 years in Central Florida, he has handled sales of more than 200,000 acres of land worth more than $1 billion.

Awards were also presented in the following categories:

- 2007 Deal of the Year: Jean Hsu, MSRED of Florida Crown Investment Co. for Agere Systems Site. The $50 million deal involved the purchase of the largest remaining contiguous piece of infill property in Orange County.
