

Last Updated: Thursday, August 01, 2002

Florida Commercial Real Estate News

By: Florida Real Estate Journal www.frej.net

---

Lake Mary shopping center opens

LAKE MARY A new 44,000sf shopping center has been completed in Lake Mary, developers Maury L. Carter & Associates and Crossman & Co. announced. The project, Cornerstone at Lake Mary, is a Publix-anchored center with an additional 16,330sf of retail space and one outparcel. The Publix store opened May 9, and the developers said other retail stores are expected to open over the next several months. This is the second build-to-suit commercial project that Maury L. Carter & Associates and Crossman & Co. have developed, having previously developed a 20,000sf Office Depot store in Orange City. Additional projects are under way, according to the firms. In another recent announcement by Maury L. Carter & Associates, Daryl M. Carter, trustee of Carter-OCC Land Trust, recently purchased three parcels totaling 7.12 acres from L. Grant Peebles for $750,000. The parcels, with frontage on Narcoossee Road, are near the Goldenrod Road extension now under construction. They are also adjacent to Carter's 385-acre Orlando Corporate Centre property, located northeast of Orlando International Airport. Maury L. Carter of Maury L. Carter & Associates represented the buyer.

---

Copyright 1993- 2007 Florida Real Estate Journal and Reni Publishing, Inc. All rights reserved. Use, duplication, or sale of this service, or data contained herein, is strictly prohibited.