Crossman & Co. brokers $11.5M sale

Daryl E. Carter and Scott E. Crossman recently sold the Belle Isle Commons shopping center in Orlando to a private investor. Mark Thompson with Crossman & Co. represented the seller in the $11.5 million transaction. The 82,093-square-foot center is located at 5126 S. Conway Road, near Orlando International Airport. It is anchored by Planet Fitness and was 98 percent occupied at the time of the sale. "Belle Isle Commons represented an opportunity for this investor to capture a very well-maintained and managed neighborhood center positioned between two major market drivers in both downtown Orlando and the Orlando International Airport," said Thompson.
