

LONG & SCOTT FARMS

500± acres

Lake County, FL

LAND FOR SALE

DESCRIPTION/LOCATION

This is some of the best production agricultural and row crop land located in Central Florida. This property has historically been used for pickle farming, cabbage, corn and other row crops. Recently, due to the proximity to major residential and commercial markets, a large portion of this property has been converted to sod production.

SOD GROWERS TAKE NOTICE! This property is located in some of the highest growing areas in the country. Proximity to major sod markets for residential and commercial uses are within minutes of the farm.

The property does not have a physical address, but is located near the western most portion of Duda Road in eastern Lake County (the county border for Lake and Orange County runs the eastern portion of the property).
